Chapter 2
Shares and Shareholders

Article 4 The company's ordinary shares are registered shares which must be paid in full value and/or paid with assets other than money or copyright grant in literatures, arts or science, patents, trademarks, models, schemes, formulars or information pertaining to commercial or scientific industry experiences.

The company has the right to issue and offer for sale of all kinds of shares, warrants or other securities as permitted by the law governing the securities and exchange.

Article 5 All share certificates of the company shall include names of the shareholders and have the signature of at least one director. However, the Board of Directors may assign the securities registrar under the law governing securities and exchange to sign or print a signature on their behalf.

Article 6 Signing on any share certificate or other securities certificates of such director or securities registrar may sign themselves or use machine or computer or stamp with any methods in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed under the law governing securities and exchange.

The company must maintain the shareholder register and evidence relating to the particulars stated in the shareholder register at the company's headquarter. However, the company may appoint Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd. as the company's securities registrar. Procedures concerning the company's registration shall be prescribed by the securities registrar.

Article 7 The company will issue a share certificate to shareholders within two months from the date in which the registrar accepts registration of the company. In case the company issues remaining shares or new shares after company registration date, the company will issue a share certificate to shareholders within two months from the date in which full payment of shares is made by money and/or other assets.

Article 8 In the event that a share certificate is substantially damaged or defaced, shareholders may request the company to issue a new share certificate by returning the original certificate.

In the event that a share certificate is lost or destroyed, shareholders must present evidence of report issued by a police officer or other appropriate evidence to the company.

In both cases, the company will issue a new share certificate to shareholders within the legal period by which the company may charge an issuance fee but shall not exceed the legal rate.

The lost, defaced or damaged share certificates shall be cancelled once the company issues a replacement.

Article 9 The company is prohibited from accepting its own shares as pledge.

Chapter 5
Board of Directors

Article 15 The company must have the Board of Directors to operate the company's business. The Board of Directors consists of at least five directors provided that at least half of the directors must reside in Thailand.

Directors may or may not be shareholders of the company.

Article 16 The election of company's directors shall be made by shareholders' meeting under following rules and procedures:

- (1) One share is equal to one vote.
- (2) Each shareholder may exercise all available votes under (1) to elect one or more persons as directors but they may not split votes among such persons.
- (3) The person obtains highest vote as well as those with respective scores shall be elected as directors but must not exceed number of directors required to be elected. In the event that persons with respective scores obtaining equal vote are excess of actual number required, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 17 At an annual general meeting of shareholders, one-third of the directors shall retire from office. If number of directors is not a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third must retire.

The retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election.

The directors who must retire in the first and second year after company registration shall be drawn by lots. In following years, the longest-serving director shall withdraw.

Article 18 In addition to retirement by rotation, the directors shall be removed from office when:

- (1) Deceased.
- (2) Resign.
- (3) Ineligible or in possession of prohibited characteristics provided by the law concerning public limited companies and securities and exchange.
- (4) Removed by resolution of shareholders' meeting according to Article 20 in these articles.
- (5) Dismissed by court order.

(Signature) _____ Director

(Mr. Somboon Patcharasopak) and (Mr. Dusit Srisangaoran)

Article 19 Any director who wishes to resign from office shall submit a resignation letter to the company. The resignation shall be effective on the date the company receives the letter.

The directors who resign from the office may also notify the registrar of their resignation.

Article 20 The shareholders' meeting may adopt a resolution to remove any director from office prior to his/her retirement by rotation by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the number of shareholders who attend the meeting and have the right to vote and collectively own not less than half of the shares held by shareholders who attend the meeting and have the right to vote.

Article 21 In case of a vacancy other than rotation on the Board of Directors, the Board shall elect a qualified person not subjected to prohibition under the law concerning public limited companies and securities and exchange as a replacement at the next meeting unless a remaining term of office of such director is less than two months. The replacement director shall hold the position only during a remaining term of the director whom he/she replaces.

The resolution of the Board of Directors in paragraph one must consist of not less than a three-fourths vote of the remaining directors.

Article 22 Directors are entitled to remuneration as shareholders' meeting resolves in voting at not less than two-thirds of the total shareholders attending the meeting. The remuneration may be fixed at an exact amount or rely on specific rules periodically or maintain perpetually until the shareholders' meeting shall modify otherwise. In addition, directors are entitled to allowances and welfares as stated in company's regulations.

The statement in paragraph one shall not affect the right of directors appointed by company's employees or staff in receiving any remuneration or benefits as an employee or staff of the company.

Article 23 The Board of Directors shall elect one director to be a chairman.

If the Board deems appropriate, one or more directors shall be elected as a vice-chairman. The vice-chairman has duties under the regulations assigned by the chairman.

Article 24 A quorum of the Boards of Directors' meeting requires the presence of not less than half of all directors. The chairman shall preside over the meeting. If the chairman is absent or unable to perform his/her duties, the vice-chairman shall act as a presiding officer. If the vice-chairman is absent or unable to perform duties, the directors shall elect one among themselves to chair the meeting.

Decisions of the Board of Directors' meeting shall be made by majority vote. Each director shall have one vote. However, any director has an interest in any matter shall have no right to vote on that matter. In case of equal voting, the chairman shall have additional vote as a casting vote.

(Mr. Somboon Patcharasopak) and (Mr. Dusit Srisangaoran)

Article 25 In summoning the Board of Directors' meeting, the chairman will be a person to summon the meeting. In the absence of the Chairman for any reasons, the Vice-Chairman shall summon the meeting of the Board of Directors. In the case of the absence of a vice-chairman, the Board of Directors' meeting may jointly be summoned by at least 2 directors.

In summoning the Board of Directors' meeting, the notices of the meeting shall be sent to the directors at least 3 days prior to the date of meeting. Unless, in the case that it is necessary or urgent to preserve the right or benefit of the Company, the meeting may be called by electronic or by other methods and the meeting date may be fixed earlier than the period of time specified above.

If it is reasonable or for the protection of the Company's interest, at least 2 directors may jointly request that the Chairman summon a meeting of the Board of Directors and they shall also propose the agenda items for consideration together with the reasons thereof to the Chairman. In this case, the Chairman shall summon and fix the date of the Board of Directors' meeting within 14 days from the date of the receipt of the request.

In the case where the Chairman does not take action in accordance with the provision in paragraph 3, the requesting directors may jointly summon and fix the date of the meeting of the Board of Directors to consider the proposed agenda items within 14 days of the end of such period mentioned in paragraph 3.

Article 26 Directors must perform duties according to laws, objectives, regulations of the company and the resolution of shareholders' meeting with integrity and perception of protecting company's interest.

Article 27 It is prohibited for directors to operate any business of the same nature and in competition with the company's business or be a partner in any ordinary partnership or an unlimited partner in limited partnership or a director in limited company or public company limited operating business of the same nature competing with the company whether for exploitation of themselves or other person except notifying the meeting of shareholders before the director appointment.

Article 28 Directors must notify the company without delay in case having an interest directly or indirectly in any contract made by the company or increasing or decreasing the holding of shares or debentures issued by the company or its affiliates.

Article 29 The Board of Directors shall hold a meeting at least 1 meeting in every 3 months at the province that the Company's head office is located or neighboring provinces.

The meeting of the Board of Directors according to paragraph 1 can be held via electronic means as prescribed by law on electronic meetings. The meeting of the Board of Directors that is held via electronic means shall be deemed as being conducted at the location of the head office of the Company.

Article 30 Two directors jointly sign and affix the seal of the company shall bind the company.
